3K and 4K News

Ms. Jacobs

This week we have been talking all about bugs! We talked about how bugs help our plants and animals. We have been heavily focusing on butterflies and their life cycles. Ask your student what they know about a chrysalis!

Thank you to the Halbach family for sharing their turtle, Shelby with us!

We celebrated Adaline's 5th Birthday on Wednesday! We also took a field trip to St. Lawrence Seminary to watch their performance of: "Joseph and The Technicolor Dreamcoat" check it out this weekend!

3K and 4K News

Ms. Jacobs

To test our butterfly knowledge, we created a butterfly life cycle!

We have been very busy making Mother's Day surprises to send home next week!

5K News

Ms. Lefeber-Krenn

We prepared for Special Person's Day with our 3K, 4K and 1st grade friends and did so well!

The kids were very interested in learning about what Braille was, so I invited Mrs. Oye in to present on how our friend Elliot learns since it came up in our writing lesson.

Math time was spent working in pairs doing 2-D and 3-D shapes and they did very well working in pairs to complete their lesson. Mass was very educational with Archbishop Grob who came and the kiddos did well listening. The 5K will be singing on May 13th for the first time in front of church, so we practiced!

5K News

Ms. Lefeber-Krenn

Thanks to St. Lawrence for inviting us for the musical, we all loved it!

For centers the creativity of building and working as a team to make objects out of shapes is fun! Some of us are working hard on how to tie our shoes! During science we wore party hats we found to use as our thinking caps!

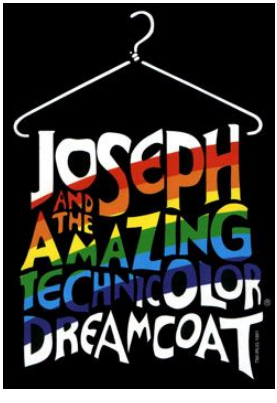

1st Grade News

Mrs. Greuel

It's been an exciting week! Camryn, Dempsey and Ellie did a wonderful job with the gifts at Mass on Wednesday. Thank you to Archbishop Grob for joining us!

We had a wonderful visit to St. Lawrence. The musical was fantastic. It was so fun to see so many students from HCS on the stage, including Camryn and Charlotte!

1st Grade News

Mrs. Greuel

ELA: We've started a new unit about the seasons and we're learning how to write how to books. We're also continuing to practice our long o spelling words with patterns -oa, -ow and -o.

Math: Our time and money unit is going well! We practiced reading analog clocks in a write the room activity.

Social Studies: We've started a new unit that's all about culture and traditions! We read about different traditions people have around the world and compared them to traditions we have.

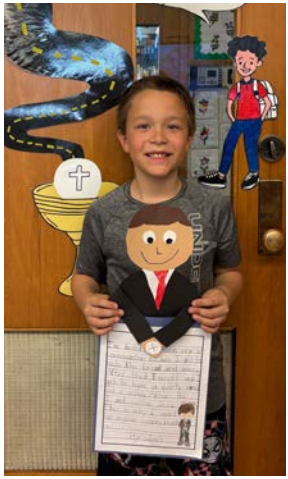

2nd Grade News

Mrs. Oye

The students have been spending the last couple of months preparing for their First Holy Communion. This Saturday is finally the day! They are all excited to receive the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ. Stop in the hall and check out their self portaits and writings about Why they are excited to receive their First Communion.

4th-8th Grade News

Mr. Zeleske

Social Studies: This week, both grades prepared for their tests! The younger students will take their test on the Constitution this Wednesday, while the older students will take their test on Australia and the Pacific islands on Tuesday. The 4th-5th graders also had the culmination of their ACE program this week. They took a field trip to the police station in Fond du Lac, where they saw SWAT vehicles, 911 dispatch, and the courtroom!

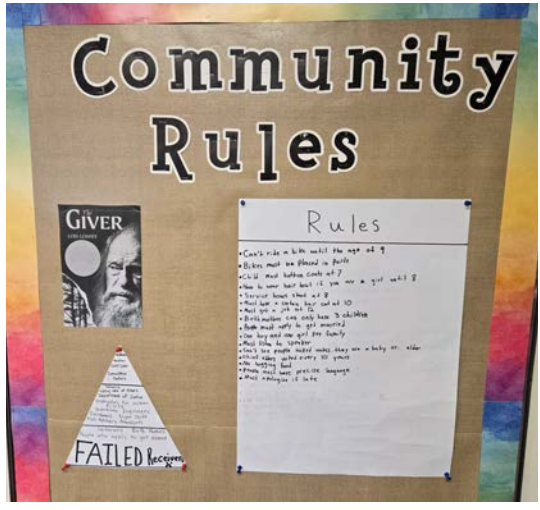

4th-8th Grade News

Mr. Zeleske

Religion: On Monday, the students reviewed for their test on the Beatitudes by playing Who Wants to Be a Millionaire? On Tuesday, the students took their test!

ELA: We have continued our novel studies this week, with the younger students reading A Wrinkle in Time and the older students reading The Giver. Our classes consist of comprehension quizzes, learning vocabulary words, discussing inferences, and talking about elements on the science fiction genre. In addition, the younger students read another story this week, "Thank You, Ma'am," and compared it to the themes in A Wrinkle in Time. The older students worked together to list the rules in The Giver's community, and they created a job hierarchy based on the novel's setting as well!
